

Common Technology Terms

9. Munchausen by Internet- Feigning, exaggerating, or self-inducing illness to command attention and carrying out this deception online.

---

10. Online disinhibition effect (ODE)- The tendency to self-disclose, to say and do things in cyberspace that would not ordinarily be said or done in the real world.

---

11. Online Escalation-A concept used to explain how problem behaviors are amplified online.

---

12. Revenge Porn- The public sharing of indecent or explicit images of a person without their consent.

---

13. Sextortion-A form of blackmail and sexual exploitation that employs nonphysical forms of coercion by threatening to release sexual images or information to extort sexual favors or money.

---

14. Sexting- The sending of sexually explicit messages or photos by using a cellphone or other device.

---

15. Stranger on the Train Syndrome- Metaphor describing an individual's willingness to disclose personal information or have an intimate discussion with a stranger or passing acquaintance.

---

16. Tech Rage- Extreme anger caused by frustration with the operation of a technological device or system, sometimes accompanied by physical or verbal abuse directed at the device.

---

17. Ubiquitous Victimology- Term describing the wide pool of potential high-risk crime victims owing to global proliferation of technology.

---

18. Uncanny Valley- The feeling of unease aroused by computer-generated figure of robots closely resembling human beings.

---

